BASKETBALL AMONG HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS

SMALLER QUINETS OF STATE SHOWING STRENGTH

Gibson City and Bellflower Schools Making Good Record—Peoria Central Defeat by Decatur Feature of Week — Jacksonville Has Chance for Final Tournament.

Tonight's Games.
Bloomington at Decatur.
Peoria Central at Springfield.
Rock Island at Monmouth.
Canton at Galesburg.
Jacksonville at Spaulding, Peoria.
Pontiac at University High.
Elgin at Joliet.
Farmer City at Normal.
Dixon at Prophetstown.
Pittsfield at Mt. Sterling.

Peoria Central's defeat at the hands of Decatur high featured the games last week between the crack teams among the Illinois high schools. It was Peoria's second defeat of the week and only the third of the season out of eleven hard games. The victory was decisive, 23 to 15, and Decatur was never headed. Being on their own floor, however, favored the Decatur players. The result of this game means that Decatur will be a factor in the district tournament, despite several defeats. Earlier in the season Peoria Central won from Decatur, 27 to 20.

Another unexpected one-sided victory was that of Hillsboro over Charleston, 31 to 18, on the small Hillsboro floor. Each team now has a game to its credit, and with Danville, Shelbyville, Paris and Arthur entered in the district tournament at Charleston, a lively meet is expected. Any one of three or four teams has a splendid chance to win this tournament, and the team with the best list of substitutes will probably win out.

Peoria Manual broke even for the week, winning unexpectedly in a way from Peoria Central by the score of 28 to 19, and losing at Bloomington, 14 to 8.

Drummer High Fast.
As predicted twice previously, Drummer High of Gibson City proved that it had a real contender when it defeated the strong University High team on its own floor by the score of 34 to 24. Drummer High has a better team than last year when it finished fourth in a strong field, and it now looks like that this small town team and Bellflower, another village team, have excellent chances to beat out most of the big city teams when they meet at Bloomington. When it is considered that University High won from Decatur, at Decatur, 31 to 7, and that Decatur beat Peoria Central one of the best central Illinois teams, Drummer High's victory stands out as one of the features of the season.

Bellflower took another game from Lexington, proving its consistency.

Springfield on Toboggan.
Springfield's loss to Normal, 28 to 22, was not expected by the followers of the Red and Black. Springfield seems to be on the toboggan just now, but Coaches Wentz and Merriman expect their proteges to regain their stride before the tournament at Jacksonville. Coach Wentz has disputed the result of the Normal game and, it seems with some reason. He blames the loss to a mistake by the referee.

Quincy sprung a surprise by trouncing Jacksonville, 33 to 27. The Jacksonville lads claim, however, that they will even up with Quincy in the tournament. It looks now like the honors in that section will go to either Jacksonville, Quincy or Springfield. Other good teams in this section are Barry and Edwardsville.

Jacksonville showed some class last night by defeating the fast high school team of Hannibal, Mo., by a score of 29 to 11.

Centralia in the south won its fifteenth victory by defeating Carbondale high Friday night. Granite City is the only other team in this section that has a chance at division of honors.

Elgin is Strong.
In the northeast section, Elgin seems to still have the call on most of the strong teams in that section. Elgin won from both Geneva and East Aurora last week. Woodstock, however, may prove a dangerous opponent, while Joliet has even a better record than Elgin.

Joliet won from Streator but lost to Waukegan, on the Waukegan floor. This game was played under the A. A. F. rules instead of the A. A. U. rules, and the Joliet boys were unprepared on defense. It seems inadvisable that any high school should play under A. A. F. rules when rules are forbidden in the district tournaments.

Last Week Before Tournament.
This week's round is the last before the tournaments. The northern district contest for division honors is being held at Rockford this week, Friday and Saturday, and the other seven districts will hold tournaments Friday and Saturday of next week.

Freeport looks like the strongest team in the Rockford division, especially since defeating Rockford last Saturday night, 35 to 25. DeKalb, Sterling and Belvidere are strong contenders, however.

The centers for tournaments next week follow:
Northeastern—Elgin.
Northwestern—Galesburg.
Western—Jacksonville.
Central—Bloomington.
North Central—Peoria.
Eastern—Charleston.
Southern—Carbondale.

Final Tournament Here?
The dates for the final tournament will be March 13 and 14, as announced by J. H. Newton, vice president of the Illinois High School Athletic Association. Mr. Newton will not choose the location until after the preliminary tournaments. It will go to one of the eight schools who will have a team in the finals, and as near the center of the state as possible. That gives Decatur, Bloomington, Peoria, Jacksonville, Springfield, Charleston and Galesburg all a chance.

"LINCOLN'S FRIEND."

Henry Clay, who tried for a long time to be president, after defeat, said: "I had rather be right than be president." So the writer of the article in a Journal of last week, entitled "Lincoln's Friend," wants to be right, and was so, according to the book he reviewed. Capt. John N. King, in Thursday's paper, has some criticism on the article of last week and adds some items out of his extended and valuable service.

The writer of "Lincoln's Friend," unfortunately, was not at Cerro Gordo, nor has he ever been in Mexico, but he has met Gen. Shields and seen Senator James A. McDougal, and seen and heard Abraham Lincoln. But, in writing the article it was not possible to refer fully to many things stated in Mr. Kennedy's admirable book. And one point was following all the details of Gen. Baker's wanderings.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Kennedy told of Mr. Baker having driven a day at one time in St. Louis, although Baker's home was then in Belleville. Kennedy says: "For several months he (Baker) drove a day in the city of St. Louis, to enable him to go on with his schooling; but it must be said that he never obtained any considerable amount or degree of systematic education." Kennedy also said: "His father was of a family of Quakers, a man of good education and known for his literary taste." The elder Baker spent years as a teacher, and Kennedy tells how he took his little boy, Edward D., about in Philadelphia, when they lived there, and told E. D., Englishman though the father was, about the historical points of our first Federal city. There, the boy learned that his English birth would prevent his ever becoming president. It is said that Edward D. cried, upon learning this. The writer read that, probably in the days of their rivalry, Lincoln told a story to the effect that Baker was reading a book, and set up a great crying. Upon investigation it was found that the future senator was reading the Constitution of the United States, and that he had discovered he never could be president. This was Lincoln's way of showing how ambitious Baker was. He did not say that he was as ambitious "as they made them," himself.

Returning to Mr. King, and the battle of Cerro Gordo: In the Journal of March 28, 1906, is the story of the capture of Santa Anna's leg by Lieut. Wm. L. Duncan, of Co. B. Any one curious to see the leg can do so in the flag room of our capital. Duncan says Private Edward Elliott, of B. Co., first got the leg. The writer's story of Cerro Gordo was just as given by Mr. Kennedy. Referring to the battle of Ball's Bluff, the writer knew that the question of Gen. Stone's acts and responsibility were very differently understood and commented on, at the time and afterwards.

Miss Anna Dickinson was very fully informed on war matters. One evening the writer heard her say that she told Gen. Stone that she thought a great injustice had been done him.

Referring to Senator McDougal: The writer knew about his latter history; but thought, as in the dry business of Baker, that it was not worth while to refer to it.

Mr. McDougal went back to the home of his youth, in or about Albany, N. Y., and died there (Albany) Sept. 3, 1867. The writer saw him at the Delavan House, in Albany, not long before his death.

BEARDSTOWN TO VOTE ON SALOON QUESTION
Petitions bearing the signatures of 402 male voters of the city of Beardstown have been filed with City Clerk R. B. Maslin, requesting a vote at the city election next April upon the question "Shall the city of Beardstown become a saloon territory?" The city election will occur on April 21st.

The petitions and the 402 names, contained thereon gives a margin of 50 names, as 352 is the number considered necessary for the city of Beardstown.

The filing of the papers means the opening of one of the fiercest political struggles ever waged in that city. With the reinforcements of the women vote the anti-saloon advocates are confident of victory, while the opposing element is said to be lining up to put up their strongest battle in this election.

HANNIBAL LOST TO JACKSONVILLE

MISSOURI TEAM DEFEATED BY SCORE OF 29 TO 11.

High School Squads Put Up Fast and Exciting Game Before Big Bunch of Spectators—Team Will Play Spaulding Institute Tonight, at Peoria—City Championship Series Opens Tuesday.

Jacksonville high school basketball team took the measurement of the five representing the Hannibal (Mo.) high school last night in Strawn's hall, defeating them by a score of 29 to 11. Only a short time ago Jacksonville went to Hannibal and were trounced in fine fashion so that the victory of last night meant much to the local players. It was a fast and exciting contest from start to finish and the boast of the Missourians about their strong team proved no myth to local followers of the popular pastime.

Coach Buland had his men keyed to a high pitch and they went into the game with a determination to win. Hannibal men soon caught the spirit and the way the ball was passed to all corners of the hall in quick fashion demonstrated that when the final whistle blew the honors of winning the contest would well be worth the effort.

In the first half E. Pyatt and Reynolds showed up the best, although the entire squad was going good. The score ended to the tune of 13 to 5 in favor of J. H. S. In the second Hannibal redoubled their energies to annex the game. Hannibal resorted on several occasions to not only rough playing but unsportsmanlike playing and before the latter half was finished Spencer was put out of the game for using profane language. Lewis who appeared to be their star man was decidedly rough and it looked for a time as though football tactics might be adopted. Christian, the Hannibal star player, didn't get into the game until the last half, relieving Foster. He claimed an injury.

Boxell played a heady game last night and made 11 of the 29 points for Jacksonville. E. Pyatt was fast and in the game every minute and Reynolds showed his usual good form. He gave away to Sutherland a few minutes before the contest ended. Smith, J. Pyatt and Hembrough showed great strength at guard. It is safe to predict that if the local five keep up their fast gait they will be a dangerous lot to any district tournament aspirant who will compete in the meet here next week. There was a big crowd out to watch the game and the rosters club was in good working order.

Play Peoria Tonight.
Tonight the J. H. S. men go to Peoria to play the Spaulding Institute quintet. Coach Buland said last night that he scarcely expected to win the Peoria game as Spaulding is fast and extremely difficult to defeat on their own floor.

Curtain Raiser.
The crowd was kept in a good humor last night by the curtain raiser between the Seniors and the Juniors, the former winning by a score of 19 to 10. Boxell and Maddox refereed the game. The lineup of the seniors was: Beeryman, c; Spears, rf; Herring, lf; E. Reynolds, rg; L. I. Wood, lg. Juniors: Adams, c; Wells, rf; Spaulding, lf; Floeth, rg; Smith, lg.

City Championship Series.
A city championship team will be picked from a series of games to be played next Tuesday night when the high school will play against the Rount college high on Strawn's hall. The Y. M. C. A. has already issued a challenge to the winner of the series. Jacksonville was to have played Canton Saturday night but on account of Jacksonville having two games this week the Canton contest will not be played.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS. W. B. ROGERS

W. H. M. S. of Grace M. E. Church Holds Profitable Session Thursday Afternoon.

The members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Grace M. E. church met Thursday afternoon for a profitable and well attended session with Mrs. W. B. Rogers, 324 South Main street. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. J. T. Smith and the first paper, based on the "Melting Pot," was read by Mrs. J. W. Lane. With the aid of a diagram of the "crucible" of American life, Mrs. Lane presented an able discussion of the problems from excessive foreign immigration.

Mrs. Robert Palmer gave an extract from the "New America" and Mrs. Sarah Cocking had charge of the enigmas, which were given in an interesting manner from "Some Thoughts of Today on Immigration." The society voted to send a box of fruit and a barrel of clothing to the family of a frontier minister in Arkansas. A social hour followed the program during which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Rogers, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Atherton and Mrs. Straight. The March meeting of the society will be with Mrs. R. K. Dearworth, 203 South Fayette street, with Mrs. H. L. Griswold and Mrs. Abbie Dearworth assisting the hostess.

REVIVAL AT MT. EMORY. In only five nights the revival meetings at Mt. Emory Baptist church have proven quite a success. PYTHIANS OBSERVED THEIR GOLDEN JUBILEE GREAT COMPANY ASSEMBLED FOR CELEBRATION THURSDAY NIGHT.

Past Grand Chancellor Bone Affirmed High Principles of the Order Account for Its Growth—Excellent Musical and Literary Program Followed by Social Hour.

The golden jubilee of Pythianism was grandly celebrated in this city last evening and surely the six hundred members of the order have excellent cause to feel proud of their organization. Castle hall was finely decorated for the occasion, the national flag predominating while evergreens, emblems and other adornments served to make the rooms unusually attractive.

The attendance was very large and the hall was filled to its utmost capacity.

A Pythian orchestra discoursed the finest of music and then W. S. Badger called the audience to order and announced the presiding officer, J. J. Reeve, who performed his duties in an admirable manner. His remarks introducing each number were well chosen. Music was again furnished by the orchestra after which the chair introduced Supreme Representative and Past Grand Chancellor, Eugene E. Bone of Springfield who delivered a fine address of which a few extracts are given.

Founded on Friendship.

"The order is well named for the illustrious man who stood by his friend and was ready to sacrifice his life for him. Why has the order grown so vastly in its comparatively short life of fifty years? It is because it is founded on the eternal principles of true friendship and devotion to the welfare of others, the noblest principles which can actuate the human breast and guide the actions of mankind. What would this life be without the feeling that we have about us those whom we love and who love us? Those for whom we are ready to sacrifice everything and who would do the same for us with pleasure? This is it, that sweetens toil, that makes the drudgery of life a pleasure and labor a sweeter. It is the guiding motive of this order and it shines out more and more as the years go by. It is this order which has cared for the ones in distress; the worthy brother overtaken by misfortune; the widow who would otherwise be destitute and the orphan cast on a cold and unfriendly world; it is these too who have caused to bless the order of Knights of Pythians.

Serving One's Fellows.

"The man who does the most for others is the one who himself is the most blessed in life and has the greatest measure of true happiness. It is better to serve our fellow men than to lead conquering hosts on the field of battle or to be a king in financial circles and rule the marts of trade with a scepter of gold. It is better to serve our fellow men than to possess untold wealth and in the end to pass away unwept by any whose lot in life we have brightened and from whose eyes we have wiped away a tear.

"It was such characteristics as these that caused our deceased Grand Chancellor C. A. Barnes to be so honored. His heart beat in unison with all that was good and true and his hand was ever ready to respond to the call for real charity. His mind was open to receive the truth and his best efforts were devoted to the welfare of his fellow men and today he holds a warm place in the hearts of all who knew him and well did he earn the place he holds.

The Basis of Real Greatness. The greatest of the earth have been the lovers of equality and fair play for all men. This was what made Abraham Lincoln so great in the estimation of his fellow men. He it was who loved the lowly and the poor; the humble and the unknown. He was sublimely unselfish and ardently devoted to the welfare of his fellow men and today no man in history occupies a higher place in the esteem of the nation. His name is spoken with reverence and to his memory all love to pay a tribute of affection and honor. Rising from the ranks of the lowly he devoted his rare talents to the welfare of those less favored in life than himself; he guided the ship of state through tempestuous storms and amid all the onerous duties of state he was never too busy to heed the call of the humble and the distressed.

"William Jennings Bryan was a charter member of number 152 and his voice has been heard in the loudest of tones for international peace. For the rule of peace he has consistently labored and in season and out of season has advocated the doctrine of love instead of war and hatred. May God hasten the day of universal peace when disputes may be settled without bloodshed.

"This country has been the dumping ground of other nations who have sent here their sons and daughters by the million and the new comers must be assimilated and to that end we need vastly more brotherly love and practical benevolence. We should practice what we preach and each day live our sentiments. Yet deeds of kindness mark our paths through life and may our fellow men bless us for what we do for them, when we approach the dark river all will be bright for we shall be in the radiance of Him who gave His precious life for the salvation of the world."

Music and Readings. The eloquent address was frequently applauded and was well received. The audience was then favored with vocal number by the Belle Lettres' quartet from the Woman's college. They were Misses Helen Jones, Nina Slaten, Freda Fenton and Ima Berryman, accompanied by Mrs. Coleen. Their singing was excellent and gave such satisfaction that a second number was loudly called for and graciously given.

Miss Esther Spoons, "always a favorite, then recited a humorous selection convulsing all with laughter and she too was insistently called back a second time, and pleased equally well with her next number.

The Pythian glee club sang with great acceptance that ever stirring song, "Illinois," and were urged to come back till Mr. Badger announced that they had no other music at hand.

The floor was then cleared and McCarty's Arabs gave a drill which was simply immense and called forth the loudest acclamations. The young men did most admirably and earned the compliments paid them.

The glee club includes Messrs. Bracewell, Gilliam, Turner, Fyffe, Collins, Williamson, Cody, Graham, Johnston, Magill, Gore, Gilbert, White, Springgate, Proffit and Badger. The quartet which sang a selection with great acceptance is composed of Messrs. Gore, Gilliam, Bracewell and Proffit.

A reading by Mrs. T. A. Ebrey was another attractive feature of the program and she proved herself talented in that line of work.

The orchestra played again and then came elegant refreshments which were most heartily enjoyed and when that number was finished all who desired remained and danced until after midnight, the capable Pythian orchestra supplying the music. The committee of arrangements for the anniversary included the trustees of the two lodges, W. S. Badger, J. P. Siebert, H. C. Reynolds, J. J. Reeve, Charles Seymour, and Charles Rataichak.

END CONTEST WITH BANQUET.

The Luther Walther circle of Salem Evangelical Lutheran church held a banquet at the Batz cafe Thursday evening as the closing event of a membership campaign. The circle was divided into two factions, the "Reds" and the "Whites" and the supper was served at the expense of the losing side. A program of after dinner talks followed the banquet at which the Rev. J. G. Kuppfer, pastor of the church, and a number of members of the circle responded to toasts.

MATRIMONIAL

Endicott-Betts.

Kelly L. Endicott and Grace Betts were married Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Court House by Squire W. T. Dyer. Both are residents of this city, where they will make their home. The groom holds a position as attendant at the Jacksonville State Hospital.

Smith-De Frates.

A very pretty home wedding took place Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Asher on Hackett avenue, when their daughter, Miss Estelle Irene DeFrates, became the bride of Mr. Elmer Smith of this city.

The home was prettily decorated for the occasion and the bridal party entered the north parlor while Mrs. Lillian Wolke, formerly Miss Lillian Angel of this city, played the wedding march. The ring ceremony was used and was performed by Rev. Walter E. Spoons, pastor of Northminster Presbyterian church. They were attended by Miss Ola Smith, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Charles E. Souza, a cousin of the bride. The bride was attired in a pretty creation of a silk chiffon over silk messaline and the bride's maid wore a dress of brocade silk.

After the ceremony a delightful luncheon was served and the cutting of the bride's cake caused no little amusement. The thimble was found by Charles E. Souza, the needle by Miss Emma DeFrates, the dime by Miss Ada Smith and the ring by the groom. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wolke, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson and daughters, Mabel, Daisy and Helen; Frank Meneses, Miss Georgia Souza, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Souza, Miss Lela Henderson, Fred Souza, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Souza, Mr. and Mrs. George Souza and son, Clarence; Allen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith and daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeFrates, Mrs. Jessie Williams, Emerson Lewis, Mrs. Eliza Heiserman, Charles E. Souza, all of this city. The out of town guests were Mrs. David Smith, sons Melvin and Lawrence and daughter Ada of Athensville.

The young people were the recipients of many beautiful presents, including silverware and cut glass, which attests the esteem in which they are held by a wide circle of friends. They will reside on North Main street, where they will take the best wishes of a large number of friends.

"LAND OF PERPETUAL SUNSHINE" SWEEP BY STORM AND FLOOD

Usual Spring Rains and Floods Do Much Damage and Bring Death to Two Persons.

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 19.—Two lives were lost and damage estimated at sums ranging from $500,000 to $1,000,000 was wrought by the storm which sent a record rain to six southern California counties during the past two days. At several points near Los Angeles a precipitation of from six to eight inches was recorded in the period between mid-night Tuesday and 8 a. m., today. The orange growing section and the railroads suffered most.

The three trunk lines entering Los Angeles, the Southern Pacific, the Santa Fe, and the Salt Lake railroads, were compelled to route all trains over a Santa Fe branch line. Santa Barbara and towns in the foot hill region were cut off, although the former was expected to regain rail communication with the outside late tonight.

CLINTON AND MARSHALLTOWN GIVEN BERTHS IN CENTRAL ASSOCIATION

Vacancies Caused by Withdrawal of Kewanee and Monmouth Are Filled at Meeting at Burlington.

Burlington, Ia., Feb. 19.—At the Central association special meeting today the question as to what cities would be taken in to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Kewanee and Monmouth was settled. Clinton was given a berth in the league at the morning session with no opposition by a unanimous vote of the directors.

There were two contestants for Kewanee's franchise—Rock Island, Ill., and Marshalltown, Iowa. Marshalltown was given a place after a heated discussion. The directors were divided as to which should be admitted, the majority favoring Rock Island, but after a discussion of the five mile limit clause of the national agreement, Rock Island was forced out. The ruling mentioned provides that no city can operate a ball club within five miles of a town supporting an organized team without the consent of the league involved.

The selection of Marshalltown makes every city in the association an Iowa town.

Marshalltown is well located and has the hearty support of the business interests in that city. Just before adjournment was taken it was decided that the association should open its season May 6th and close Sept. 7th.

Choose Princeton Team.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 19.—Princeton's mile relay team to compete against Yale at Pittsburgh and Cornell at St. Louis was chosen today after trial heats. The four men selected are Atha, Mackenzie, Hayes and Cooley.

The semi-finals in the doubles will be played tomorrow, Alexander and Pell getting into action.

To Form Amateur Association

Chicago, Feb. 19.—At least eighteen cities will be represented at a meeting here tomorrow for the purpose of organizing the national amateur baseball association of the United States. The meeting will be in response to a call issued by the Chicago Amateur Baseball League and it is planned to organize the amateur associations of the country into a body similar to those of the major leagues.

Will Open Season May 6th.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 19.—The Wisconsin-Illinois Baseball League will open the season May 6th or 7th and close Sept. 13th, it was decided today at the annual meeting. The old schedule of 126 games was retained, the agitation for 140 games meeting with little support.

The transfer of the Fond du Lac franchise to Menominee was ratified. Freeport, Ill., through George Buser, applied for the franchise held by Wausau, Wis. The application will be considered at a meeting in about ten days when a schedule will be drafted.

"Kid" Gleason Optimistic.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Believing that the development of one more top notch pitcher and an increase on the baselines will make the White Sox pennant winners, "Kid" Gleason, left tonight with the vanguard of the team for their spring grounds at Paso Robles, Cal. Optimistic report from Pitcher Ed Walsh who is already on the ground and the good condition of the recruits who boarded the train were responsible for rosy predictions by Gleason. The White Sox special carried 50 people among whom were these twenty-six players: Schalk, Mager, catchers; Lord, Berger, Blackburn and Sheehan, infielders; Collins, Campbell and Kavanaugh, outfielders; Cloutte, Clarence Smith, Rathrop, Quaders, Timmerman, Wolfgang, Proudh, Rogge, Halstein, Schreiber and Roth, pitchers.

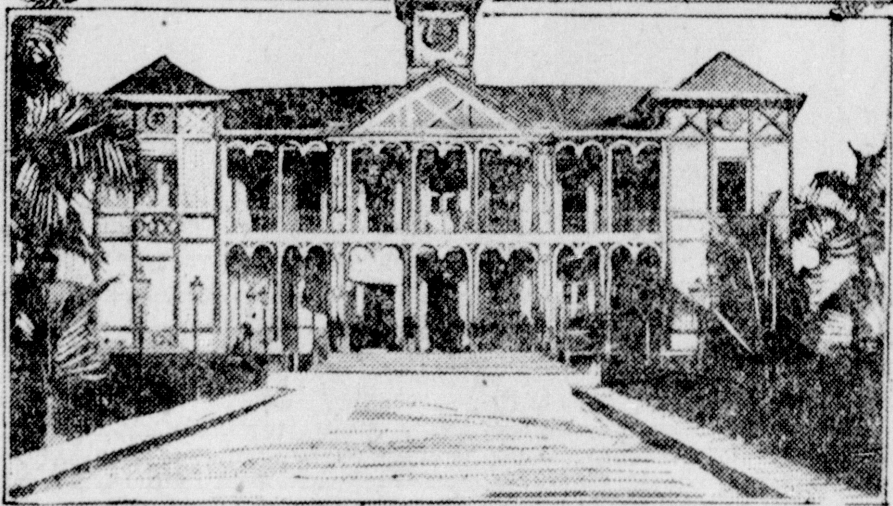

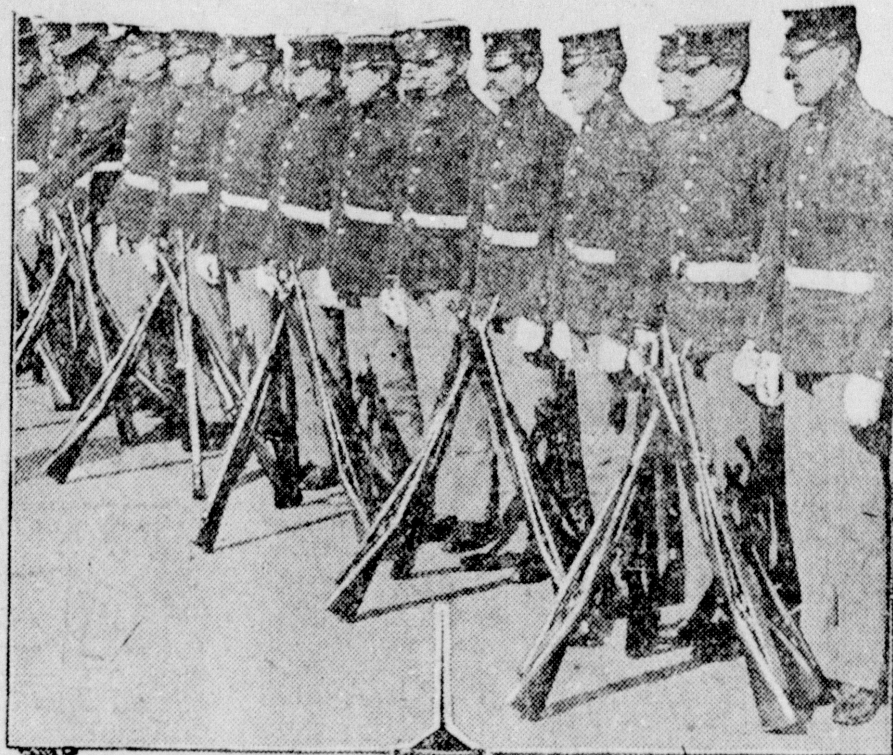

On their way the Sox will be joined by Pitchers Jasper, E. W. Johnson and House, and Infielder Barbour. Outfielders Bodie and Fournier, Catchers Sullivan and Kuhn, First Baseman Chase and Pitchers Walsh and Russell are expected to report in California. The train is due at Paso Robles Sunday. Manager Callahan with others of the team will rush across the continent on their return from the world's tour and join the Gleason contingent on the Pacific coast. The White Sox first team will play forty exhibition games on its tour and the second team has thirty-eight scheduled.

Stahl May Join Feds.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—According to an announcement tonight by James A. Gilmore, president of the new Federal League, Artie Hoffman, one time Chicago National League player and Jimmy Block, former Chicago American League catcher have signed contracts.

Conferences which indicated that Jake Stahl, former Boston American club manager might undertake the leadership of the Brooklyn Federals had not ended in an agreement tonight. Robert B. Ward, president of the Brooklyn club, Stahl and Gilmore spent most of the day together but no announcement was made when the trio separated for the night. Gilmore indicated the discussion would be resumed tomorrow. Hoffman was a member of the Cubs during the Frank Chance regime. He was among the leaders in battling Chance often called him his most reliable outfielder. Pittsburgh farmed him to the Nashville club of the Southern association last year. Block was the property of the Milwaukee association club last year.

SPILLWAY PROJECT FOR THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY EXPLAINED

Riker Plan It Is Claimed Would Provide All Drainage Needed Through Wide Area at Comparatively Low Cost.

Herbert Myrick, president of the Orange Judd Farmer Co., in the forthcoming number of that paper has an extended article explaining the Dyer bill which is now before congress, embracing the Riker project for a Mississippi spillway and ramifications. It is maintained that his project if carried out will supply all the drainage relief needed through the entire Mississippi valley. Mr. Myrick outlines the purposes of the project to be the following:

1. Control of the waters of the Mississippi and of its tributaries, from the Alleghenies on the east to the Rocky mountains on the west, at all stages from maximum flood to minimum flow in such manner as to—

2. Maintain a normal level in the Mississippi river itself, forever mostly prevent flood damages throughout its basin, and insure deep water navigation to the interior.

3. Reclaim millions of acres of land throughout this vast area, draining it when wet, irrigating it when dry, transforming it into matchless productivity. The spillway itself traverses an area, much of which is now uninhabitable swamp.

4. Develop, in successive units as required, an aggregate minimum of five million horse power from the Mississippi river below Cairo. This will furnish energy, light and heat at reasonable prices within an area 600 miles wide from New Orleans to Chicago and Minneapolis.

5. Transform the crooked Mississippi into a comparatively straight waterway, so broad and deep that the largest ocean vessels now afloat may proceed at good speed from the gulf to Cairo and on to St. Louis, as well as up the Ohio river. Coastwise shipping may safely reach to Alexandria on the Red river, to Little Rock on the Arkansas, and eventually to Louisville and Cincinnati on the Ohio. Utilization of the Missouri and of the upper reaches of the Mississippi may follow in time. Thus virtually the entire Atlantic coast line into the very heart of the United States and eventually connect it with the great lakes by a deep waterway from St. Louis to Chicago.

6. Do all this with marvelous economy of time and money by employing Rikers' remarkable new applications of old principles to dredges and dredging, to dams and locks, which open up hitherto unsuspected possibilities in engineering. Carry out this system of waterways shall be free from many of the unfavorable conditions which heretofore have prevented utmost efficiency in the use of water transportation.

7. Improve the physical health, and, therefore, the capacity of the people by thus providing an adequate system of sewerage and drainage, irrigation and navigation. The health factor alone warrants the undertaking.

8. Some amelioration of climate may possibly result in better distribution of moisture and temperature.

9. The work should be conducted as a government enterprise, in the service of all the people all the time. The preliminary spillway from the gulf to Cairo sufficient to safeguard against floods can be constructed within three years at a cost of not more than the damage (forty to seventy million dollars) caused by floods in a single year between Cairo and the gulf. The permanent works may be completed within eight years at an aggregate cost for the entire gigantic project not exceeding the cost of the Panama canal. This compares with $200,000,000 as Pres Perkins' estimate of the destruction caused in one single year by uncontrollable floods within the nation wide area thus to be served.

10. A great city and seaport will arise where the spillway enters the gulf. One of the vastest distributing points and centers of population may be the new city between the spillways' intakes. One of these cities should be named Riker.

11. Cities, towns and industries along the Mississippi from the gulf to St. Louis and for 300 miles back on either side will undergo prodigious development. New Orleans will be to our southern coast what New York is to the Atlantic. Vicksburg and Memphis will develop wonderfully. All iron and steel industries, railroad construction, all branches of the building trades and other manufactures will have a new market for their goods, created by this development. Southern agriculture will receive unparalleled impetus.

12. The logical evolution of the Riker project should be vastly more beneficial to more millions of people than the Panama canal. This project should encourage a gradual development in civilization that may solve many of our economic political problems, promote American supremacy in world trade, foster American influence for world peace, and make America more than ever the hope of the peoples of the earth.

He found out there many pleasant things and some otherwise and returns well pleased with old Illinois which is good enough for him. A great many people are out there, some attracted by the forthcoming exposition and others for the sake of health and it will hurry many of them to make a living.

SEEKS TO SELL IN AMERICA WINDOW OF COLUMBUS' HOUSE

Member of Lisbon Academy of Science, Descendant of Discoverer of America, Says Relic Came From Funchal, Madeira, and Is Dated 1474.

Paris.—The only important relic in Europe of Christopher Columbus, a Gothic window, dated 1474, and taken from the house in Funchal, Madeira, where the discoverer of America lived, is now offered for sale.

The present owner is Senhor Agostino Dornellas of the Lisbon Academy of Science, who traces his descent from the immortal navigator. Considerable controversy has raged over the question of the window's authenticity, but Dornellas asserts he has set all doubts at rest by a memoir supported by documentary evidence.

The Portuguese academical has decided to part with the relic of his illustrious ancestor with great reluctance, but is forced thereto in order to obtain money to pursue his scientific researches.

San Francisco Exposition May Get It

The suggestion is made in Paris that the proper future home of the window is the United States, and it would prove a great attraction at the San Francisco Exposition, where it might be displayed with the casket containing Columbus' bones.

Supporting his contention that Columbus lived in Funchal, Dornellas says the navigator married Philippa Moniz, daughter of Bartholomea Perestrelo, first Governor of the Island of Porto Santo, which is only 49 miles distant from Madeira.

The supposition that Columbus never lived in Funchal, says Dornellas, is ridiculous. It was from there he witnessed the sailing of the vessel Don Fernando, which the Lord of Madeira sent to seek the islands sighted somewhere to the northwest by Goncalo Fernandes de Tavira on his return from Gold River.

House Torn Down in 1877.

The writer, Las Casas, also tells how he heard from Diego Columbus himself that his father lived at Madeira, where news of wonderful discoveries arrived daily, and this was "the starting point of the expedition for the discovery of the new world."

The Gothic window now offered for sale comes from "Columbus' house," which was torn down in 1877. The upper part of this house was owned by Dornellas.

This house stood between Esmeraldo and Sabac streets, Funchal, but although there was an uninterrupted tradition that Columbus lived there, the local authorities destroyed it to meet the exigencies of the town's improvements.

The American Consul-General, Dix, in his book, "Winter in Madeira," gives a picture of the window as a frontispiece.

HUSBAND AND WIFE

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Little Must Answer for Killing of J. J. Van Cleve at Shreveport, La.

Shreveport, La., Feb. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Little were arraigned in the district court here today to stand trial on a charge of having murdered J. J. Van Cleve. The murder of Van Cleve, a prominent real estate man, occurred in the corridor of a downtown office building on November 18, last, and created a widespread sensation. According to the statements of those who witnessed the tragedy, Little shot down Van Cleve when urged to do so by his wife, who was standing near by.

Many conflicting stories have been circulated as to the underlying cause for the tragedy. According to some of the friends of the accused husband and wife Van Cleve had been intimate with the woman before her marriage to Little and had endeavored to force his attentions on her after her marriage. These statements, however, are not in accordance with much of the evidence offered at the preliminary hearing of the accused couple. Friends and business acquaintances of the slain man testified that he had determined to sever his relations with Mrs. Little and that it was his refusal to have anything more to do with her that led to the tragedy.

Van Cleve and Little were partners in the real estate business. For some time prior to the tragedy, according to statements made by those employed about the building in which Van Cleve and Little had their offices, the former had endeavored to avoid Mrs. Little, who repeatedly called at the offices to see him and who, it is said, had threatened him with bodily harm.

As a result of the trouble Van Cleve and Little decided to end their partnership. On the morning of the tragedy a deal was concluded whereby Van Cleve bought out the interests of his partner in the business. After the papers were signed the two men and a mutual acquaintance stood engaged in friendly conversation in front of the building. According to the testimony of witnesses Mrs. Little approached the trio and asked her husband if he had whipped Van Cleve. Little replied that he had not and that everything had been settled amicably.

According to the statement of the mutual acquaintance who witnessed the tragedy Mrs. Little applied a vile epithet to Van Cleve and told her husband that if he did not whip him she would. It is said that Little thereupon drew a revolver and answered, "I'll whip him."

Van Cleve, who had been standing a few feet away, but taking no part in the conversation, turned around and started to enter the building. He had reached the elevator when Little pulled him back and shot him. After his victim had fallen to the floor Little fired four more shots into the prostrate body.

Map of Reconstructed Balkans And King of Newly Made State.

The results of the two recent Balkan wars have been figured by an Austrian expert and are shown in this map. Bulgaria's territory is increased by only 16 per cent, while Greece, engaged in the least of actual hostilities, gained 87 per cent of her former area. In the case of Bulgaria that means an increase of 6,000 square miles and of Greece slightly over 21,000. Serbia gained 80 per cent, or 14,900 square miles, and Montenegro 60 per cent, or 2,000 square miles. The new independent state of Albania, covering a little less than 11,000 square miles, was created. Turkey, of course, lost almost all of this. The present population of the Balkan states, exclusive of Turkey, is now, in round numbers, 24,000,000. Prince William of Wied has been selected by the powers as king of Albania.

INTEREST INCREASES IN JUDICIAL ELECTION CONTEST

Morgan County has Good Claim for Representation Among Judges of Circuit—Other Counties Have Recognition.

Local interest in the candidacy of Judge F. E. Baldwin to succeed Judge O. P. Thompson is increasing. Irrespective of party, residents of Morgan county feel that it should have a resident judge. Business and professional men have voluntarily written to friends and acquaintances in the other counties, in his behalf, soliciting their influence and support. The results have been gratifying and the suggestion is a good one for others to follow, who are interested in retaining a resident judge.

Excepting Scott County, the other counties composing this judicial circuit have been given recognition. Greene has the congressman; Sangamon and Macoupin each have a resident circuit judge; Greene, Jersey and Sangamon are represented in the present legislature. Morgan and Sangamon are in the same legislative district, but the latter has the senator and three members of the lower house.

Morgan county is the third largest in the district and always has a large docket. Every county seat in this judicial circuit is easily reached from Jacksonville. This has been a consideration in the past elections and it is believed it is an assurance of success at the special primary, March 24th.

It is pointed out that Greene and Jersey have stood together in legislative, congressional and judicial contests and will probably be together in this special primary. By reason of the legislative situation it is claimed by influential Sangamon county democrats that they are kindly disposed to Morgan county and that Judge Baldwin will have an even break in that county. Scott county has always been friendly to Morgan county. The precincts which have reported indicate that the sentiment is for Judge Baldwin.

Judge Baldwin is deservedly popular here at home and will receive a decisive vote. He grew to manhood in Morgan county and for over twelve years has been an active practitioner in its courts. It is not claimed that he will receive a unanimous vote—a thing utterly impossible for any candidate, but his vote here at home will be as decisive as will be that of his opponent in his home county. As the campaign now stands, Judge Baldwin's friends believe his nomination will be assured if local democrats will get busy.

SODA SWEETENS ACID STOMACHS, ENDS DYSPEPSIA

When we eructate sour food, acid fluids and we belch gases it doesn't mean the stomach is lacking in digestive juices, says a noted authority who states that nearly all stomach distress and indigestion is a result of acidity; meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the digestive organs. This irritating acid retards digestion and promotes food fermentation. Then everything eaten sours in the stomach like garbage sours in a can, forming gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon, producing a heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest or we eructate food, constantly belch gas or have heartburn flatulence, bloating, water-brash and nausea.

He tells us to get a package of 19 grain Sodagen tablets at any pharmacy and take one tablet anytime followed by a tumbler of water. This will instantly neutralize acidity, stop fermentation, absorb gases and sweeten the entire digestive system.

A well-known local druggist says these 10 grain Sodagen tablets are an old favorite Antacid used by thousands of men and women because of their harmless nature, being composed of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. S. P.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Pills Act on Liver and Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils—Danger.

Get a 10-cent box now. Most old people must give to their bowels some regular help, ere they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to let weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

HYOMEL RELIEVES

IN FIVE MINUTES

You Breathe It. If your head is all stuffed up from a cold or catarrh, you suffer with dull headaches and seem lacking in vitality, or are constantly sniffing and coughing, you need a remedy that will give the quickest, most effective and lasting relief possible—something that will go right to the spot, clear the head and throat and end your misery.

Surely use Hyomel—all druggists sell it. It is just a remedy, and is entirely harmless and pleasant to use—you breathe it—no stomach dosing.

The antiseptic oils of Hyomel mix with the air you breathe—its health-giving medication immediately reaches the sore and inflamed mucous membrane—you feel better in five minutes. It is practically impossible to use Hyomel and not only be relieved but permanently benefited. Your money refunded if you are not satisfied. Ask for the complete outfit—$1.00 size.

The worth of family photos increases as the years pass. Have a picture taken soon. Your family will appreciate it both now and later.

EVERYTHING WAS CHEAP.

Just Imagine Buying a Whole Sheep For 10 Cents.

A countryman living just beyond the outskirts of London drove to the metropolis one day to order a few provisions, etc.

(By the way, this account is perfectly true. It is not a problem or a joke. The prices stated can be verified.)

The countryman first went to the nearest cobbler's. There he bought a good pair of shoes. Not shoddy footwear, carelessly turned out or even machine made, but hand sewed and of fine, strong leather. For this pair of shoes he paid just 7 cents.

Next he drove to a butcher stall in Smithfield. There he bought a sheep, a dozen chickens and ten pounds of beef. For the sheep he paid 10 cents. For the chickens he paid 10 cents apiece, or 18 cents for the dozen. The ten pounds of beef cost him a nickel. For beef was half a cent a pound.

Stowing away his purchases in his big wagon, the farmer next stopped at a fish stall, where for 10 cents he bought twenty-five big codfish.

His visit to the grain merchant cost him more. For he was forced to pay 15 cents for a bushel of rye—a sum out of all proportion to his earlier purchases. It was cheaper, you see, to buy meat than the rye bread to eat it with.

But his ensuing trip to the draper's for enough homespun cloth to provide him with a winter suit atoned for the high price of the grain. For he found that the stout homespun cloth was selling at 12 cents an ell, or 93.5 cents a yard.

The farmer had no trouble in carrying his wares home in his wagon. For the wagon was large. He had driven it to London full of firewood, and this wagon load of wood he had sold for 12 cents.

The foregoing prices are all accurate. The high cost of living had not yet hit England. For, you see, all this happened several years ago.

In fact, it was at the beginning of the sixteenth century.—New York World.

METEORIC SHOWERS.

Why They Have Little or No Effect Upon the Earth's Balance.

In answer to the query, "The earth is held in its orbit by the absolute balance of centripetal and centrifugal forces, and if the balance were disturbed the earth should fly away into space or fall to the sun, yet this balance is continually disturbed by meteors and other causes and no catastrophe occurs; please explain," Edgar Lucien Larkin, in the New York American, says:

"There is no centrifugal force as such in nature. What so appears is reaction against gravity due to the motion of the earth. Inertia, an inherent property of all matter, would forever maintain a moving body in an absolutely straight line in its original direction unless some outside force draws it aside. The direction of drawing aside is always toward the outside disturbing mass—the sun in this case. And the earth thus continually falls from a straight line—a tangent—to its orbit through a distance of one-ninth of an inch during each second.

"If gravitation should suddenly be annihilated the earth would fly away on a straight line into space. But should a trillion tons of meteors suddenly fall on the earth it would not fall to the sun, but would still revolve around it much faster on a smaller orbit. The year would be shorter. And the new orbit assumed would be determined in space by the equilibrium of central gravitation and the reaction of inertia of the earth against it. But since the setting up of the grand master clock in Greenwich no variation of the length of the sidereal year has been detected. Therefore the mass of all the millions of meteors falling on the earth daily is too small to have any appreciable effect on the length of the year."

Stork and Cupid Cunning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten It.

There is usually a certain degree of dread in every woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of child-birth. But thanks to a most remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, all fear is banished and the period is one of unbounded, joyful anticipation.

Mother's Friend is used externally. It is a most penetrating application, makes the muscles of the stomach and abdomen pliant so they expand easily and naturally without pain, without distress and with none of that peculiar nausea, nervousness and other symptoms that tend to weaken and distress the mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are held up to veneration; they are rated as cunning plotters to herald the coming of a little sunbeam to gladden the hearts and brighten the homes of a host of happy families.

There are thousands of women who have used Mother's Friend, and thus know from experience that it is one of our greatest contributions to healthy, happy motherhood. It is sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle, and is especially recommended as a preventive of caking breasts and all other such distresses.

Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 131 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their very valuable book to expectant mothers. Get a bottle of Mother's Friend to-day.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. O Corn-less Joy! "GETS-IT" for Corns such a long time. Drop everything else and use "GETS-IT." A few drops applied in a few seconds does the work. Useless junk, like flesh-eating salves that make corns swell, cotton rings that make corns stand up like a city, or corn diggers, seissors and files that make corns grow faster, are all done for. "GETS-IT" is on a new principle, makes corns shrivel, vanish! It won't stick to the stocking, or hurt the flesh.

"GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists, at a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

RECALLS BOYHOOD OF WILLIAM B. MCKINLEY

COUSIN TELLS OF VISITS TO JACKSONVILLE.

W. Finley Brown relates incidents in Youth of Financier and Ex-Congressman—Tells of Relative's Rise From Small Beginnings—Carries on Philanthropies Quietly.

William B. McKinley, electric railway magnate and former congressman showed habits of industry and thrift that have made him rich early in life, according to his cousin, William Finley Brown, of this city, who recalls many incidents in the boyhood and youth of Mr. McKinley. He was born in Petersburg and reared there and in Champaign and was a guest often at the home of Judge William Brown on West State street, which was known later as the Greenleaf house was earned in November 1911. Young McKinley's first job, Mr. Brown says, was in a Springfield drug store. He lived in Champaign at the time and went at first against the protests of his parents, who man of high standing in the annals of Illinois Presbyterianism. In speaking of the father of the future railroad executive, W. Finley Brown said: "No man was better respected in his community and no man was better loved than the Rev. George McKinley. He preached the Word fearlessly and he spoke his belief without hesitation. He was a man of force." He was lovable, quiet and patient in his work, however, and was distinctly adverse to undue show and display. He was a man of medium stature, but had a voice remarkable for its richness and carrying power. Of such stern and able ancestry was the future congressman and financial prodigy.

In personal appearance William B. McKinley is not prepossessing. He is about five and one-half feet in height and weighs about 160 pounds. He has grown more corpulent a later years, but is not as large a man as might be inferred from his photograph.

Mr. Brown of Grove street is related to Mr. McKinley through his mother. The Rev. Robert Finley had two daughters, Susan and Hannah. The former married Judge Brown, who passed away in 1872, and Hannah became the wife of the Rev. George McKinley, the ex-congressman's father.

Early Business Ventures. William B. McKinley was taken into partnership by his father's invention and can speak with authority on intricate technical questions relative to the management of public utilities.

In 1905 Mr. McKinley was elected to congress as a representative of the 19th district. He held this seat until the end of the last congress in March, 1913, and grew to be a man of influence, with membership on several important committees. In the election of 1912 he was defeated by but a few hundred votes. Mr. McKinley had charge of the pre-convention campaign of ex-President Taft and seems to have filled his part of the agreement well, notwithstanding the defeat of Mr. Taft in the November elections.

A Quiet Philanthropist.

Unlike many rich men, Mr. McKinley has carried on his philanthropies in a quiet, unassuming way. Although not famed as a devotee of higher education and many times advising young men against the pursuing of advanced courses at the expense of practical training, Mr. McKinley maintains a large loan fund at the state university for the aid of needy and deserving students. He will not lend to first year men, but must be sure that the applicant for loans is worthy of help. He has helped women students on occasions, but prefers for the most part to confine his aid to struggling young men.

Another way in which he has remembered the university is by the erection of the students' Presbyterian church. He has membership himself in the First Presbyterian church of Champaign and attends every Sunday he is in the city. A favorite philanthropy of Mr. McKinley is the giving of vacations to workers in stores and offices during the summer months. He does not confine this practice to his own employees, but sends companies of dozens or so from other concerns for a two week vacation in the sultry weather and stands all the expense entailed by their absence.

Russell & Lyon's store will close Saturday nights at 8 o'clock until April 1.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

"Mothercraft is becoming a prominent subject in the elementary schools of England.

School janitors in Salt Lake county, Utah, meet together in "institutes" every year to discuss the technical side of their work.

Dinner is served to the girls who come to the evening classes in the Washington Irving high school, New York city. Instead of going to public restaurants, the girls come directly from work to the school and spend the intervening time in the "gym" or reading rooms.

In Denmark the school teacher is almost always furnished with a house, barn and a few acres of land, according to W. H. Smith, a recent observer from the United States bureau of education. "The tenure of office of the teacher is for life, or good behavior, and 75 per cent of the rural teachers are men who settle down in their respective communities, cultivate the small farm, act as choristers in the country church, and easily and naturally become leaders in affairs."

Community music is the latest in co-operation. The pastor of a church in Locust Valley, N. Y., found that the church, the school and the young people's organizations were spending a total of about $1,300 a year for music without getting the best results. At his suggestion they pooled their funds and secured for $100 a month the services of a competent music director who spends two days a week in Locust Valley, organizing and directing the music for the church and school, training a children's choir, giving monthly musical entertainments and developing a choral society.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD.

Restored to Health by Vinol—A Letter to Mothers.

Anxious mothers often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following:

Mrs. M. L. Cassady of Thomasville, Ga., says: "My little daughter was anaemic, delicate and nervous, she had no appetite and seemed listless. We could not seem to find anything that would help her until we were advised to give her Vinol. Inside of two weeks after taking it she showed a marked improvement, both in appetite, vim and looks. I continued giving it to her and words fail to express my gratitude for what Vinol has done for her."

This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cods' livers, combined with the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol.

Vinol will build up and strengthen delicate children, old people, and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails. Lee P. Alcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill. P. S.—Eczema Sufferers! We guarantee our new skin remedy, Saxo.—Adv.

RAILROAD COMEDY

Methods of Operation in 1852 Seem Laughable Today.

QUAINT RIGHT OF WAY RULES.

On the Western and Atlantic When Trains Met Between Stations and a Dispute Arose the Conductors Decided Which Train Had to Back Down.

A most interesting exhibit of the early days of railroading in this country has been found by the Railroad Age Gazette. It is a schedule for passenger trains and rules for the conduct of engineers and conductors on the Western and Atlantic, which was at the time and still is owned by the state of Georgia. The table is dated March 1, 1852, and was issued by William M. Wadley, superintendent, father of George D. Wadley, the latter for many years manager of the Central Railroad of Georgia.

The schedule shows a picture of an engine and cars at the top. Under it the numbers and names of the stations, the times for arrival, the times for departure and the time taken to run between stations as well as remarks about passing sidetracked freights are all carefully tabulated.

In the rules for engineers and conductors are many which seem quaint in this age of colossal railroading. Of course the road had only one track, and rule 14 for passenger conductors shows that there must have been some dispute when trains met as to which train had the right to keep on its way uninterrupted. This rule says:

"As a general rule, when trains meet between stations the train nearest the turnout will run back. Any dispute as to which train is to retire is to be determined at once by the conductors without interference on the part of the engineers. This rule is required to be varied in favor of the heaviest loaded engine or worst grades if they meet near the center."

Rule 7 gives the conductor directions for reporting on the number of passengers who are paying and the number of ministers of the gospel who were to be charged half price when on business connected with their calling. The same rule indicated that the governor of the state and the general superintendent of the road were the only individuals who had a right to give passes.

The conductor was ordered to inspect the running gear of his train at every station and in rule 13 was admonished never to leave Atlanta or Chattanooga without the mail or without first sending to the postoffice after it. Rule 17 says that a train stopping at any station at night must invariably be run on the turnout so as to leave the main track clear, and that strict watch had to be kept in all cases where a train stopped at night.

In the regulations for passenger engineers there are a number which seem almost humorous in this period of railroad management. For instance, the engineman was instructed that if his train killed any stock and threw the cow or cows in such a position as to endanger the safety of the next train he was to stop his train and see that the track was cleared.

Passenger trains were not to exceed the speed of their schedule except when behind time, in which case the speed might be increased three miles an hour generally. In passing turnouts (the turnout evidently was the switching track) the speed had to be diminished to six miles an hour.

Rule 6 might be put in force today with good effect and to the delight of a much jolted traveling public. It reads:

"In connecting and in starting with his train the engineman will be exceedingly careful in the management of the throttle so that the cars may not be injured or the passengers annoyed by the sudden violence of the start."

This paragraph is found at the end of the regulations for enginemen:

"For any violation of the above rules, for running off at turnouts, for killing of stock by daylight and for all other irregularities the general superintendent will impose such fines as he deems just and called for by the nature of the offense."

The freight trains took two days to make the 137 miles between Atlanta and Chattanooga. The stops at the stations varied from ten to sixty minutes. One of the rules for freight conductors about keeping a certain distance from the trains ahead of him and behind him shows that there must have been a delightful uncertainty about the provisions for changing meeting points in case trains were delayed. It is evident that there was no telegraph communication along the line, although this was eight years after Morse had demonstrated that he could send messages over the wire from Washington to Baltimore. Several months before Charles Minot also had made use of the telegraph in ordering the operation of trains on the Erie.

Now, What Did He Give Her?

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

EXCEPT IN A FEW CASES MOVEMENTS ARE UNIMPORTANT

Speculative Activity Diminishes and Day's Business is About Half of That Transacted in Preceding Session.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Speculative activity diminished today and except in a few isolated cases movements were unimportant. The market improved slowly in the morning but subsequently drifted back again.
The day's business was about half of that transacted in the preceding session.

The morning advance was influenced by the statement of the interstate commerce commission, that a decision would be made in the freight rate case within the next three months. Speculative opinion inclines strongly to the belief that some increase will be granted. There was a good inquiry for the standard railroad shares and also for the stocks of steel companies and affiliated industries. The afternoon reaction was due more to the cessation of trading than to pressure on the list.
Weakness of various stocks also held back the general market. Rock Island preferred made a new low record at 9½. J. I. Case preferred fell four points to 82 after announcement of a new financing by the company. Last week it closed at 93½.

"Sure! I use 'TIZ' every time for any foot trouble."

You can be happy-footed just like me. Use "TIZ" and never suffer with tender, raw, burning, blistered, swollen, tired, smelly feet. "TIZ" and only "TIZ" takes the pain and soreness out of corns, callouses and bunions.

As soon as you put your feet in a "TIZ" bath, you feel the happiness soaking in. How good your poor, old feet feel. They want to dance for joy. "TIZ" is grand. "TIZ" instantly draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause sore, inflamed, aching, sweaty, smelly feet.

YOUR FRECKLES.

Need Attention in February and March or Face Will Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.—Adv.

JUSTICE THOMSON ASSESSES JUDGMENT AGAINST BURLINGTON

Finds That Railroad Company's Acts Were in Violation of Anti Liquor Shipping Ordinance—Case Will Probably Be Appealed.

Complying with his announcement to give a decision in the case of the City of Jacksonville vs. the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, an action for debt to recover $100 penalty for violation of the city's liquor ordinance, Thursday or Friday of this week, Justice W. E. Thomson announced his finding, giving the city a judgment for the amount asked from the railroad company.

According to the law the Burlington road has twenty days in which to file an appeal on the decision, and it is certain that an appeal bond will be filed in the course of the next few days.

Justice Thomson's Finding.

Justice Thomson's finding follows: "The prohibitory clause of the ordinance said to be violated in this case is as follows: 'It shall be unlawful for any express company, railway company or other common carrier or for any person to bring into or to deliver to any person within the City of Jacksonville, any intoxicating liquors,' the same having gone into effect January 9th, 1914. 'The evidence is clear and undisputed that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, did, on February 9th, 1914, bring into the City of Jacksonville and deliver to one Charles Duncan, a shipment of one case of beer, said beer having been shipped from Avenza, this state. The fact that beer is an intoxicating liquor was likewise not disputed. Neither were the further facts that 'Jacksonville is in local option or 'dry' territory' and that said 'Ordinance was passed by the City Council of Jacksonville and proper publication had according to law' disputed.

Validity of Law is Question. "The only matter in controversy is as to the validity of said Ordinance, the Railroad Company contending that it is invalid for a number of reasons, the principal one being that the city had no power to pass the same.

"This decision being given in my capacity of Justice of the Peace, it seems to be only fitting and proper that I should indicate that I do not think a Justice of the Peace (speaking for myself only) should declare a law unconstitutional or an ordinance invalid, except in the clearest of cases.

"I have gone over the citations given and in most cases, read the cases cited. In the City of Carthage vs. Munsell, 302 Ill. 474, the Supreme Court of the State in 1903 held that the delivery of liquor in dry territory was not a nuisance in the absence of any evidence showing that it was a nuisance.

"The case of The People vs. Young, 237 Ill. 202, decided in 1903, the court held that the Local Option Act did not in itself prohibit a delivery of liquor in dry territory.

"The case of State vs. Grier, a Delaware case cited by Defendant, if followed, would uphold the Ordinance in question. If the city has been given the power to pass such ordinance, by the state.

"So also in the language of the court in the case of Tarantini vs. L. & N. R. R. Co., 254 Ill. 630 decided in 1912, sufficient to indicate that the state could give to a city the power to pass such an ordinance.

"This would narrow the question down to whether or not such a power has been granted to the city. Numerous powers are defined in article 5 of the Cities and Villages Act, the city contending that said ordinance was passed in accordance with the powers therein granted.

"Finding no case in point showing that the city did not have power to pass said ordinance, in accordance with my view above given, I do not presume to say that it is invalid.

"Accordingly, I must find that said Railroad Company's acts were in violation of said ordinance both in bringing into and delivering intoxicating liquors in the City of Jacksonville and that said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company is indebted to the said City of Jacksonville in the sum of One Hundred Dollars, and judgment is given accordingly, with costs of suit."

Argues That Law is Unreasonable. In his argument on behalf of the railroad W. T. Wilson maintained that the city had cited no higher court findings to substantiate the claim that the court should rule in favor of the city. Mr. Wilson argued that the anti-liquor shipment law as passed by the City Council was unreasonable upon its face, providing for no exceptions of any kind whatsoever. He said that the law strictly interpreted would mean that no physician, or hospital, should have alcohol shipped in by either express or freight, and that no person could deliver shipments without being amenable to the law.

Further Mr. Wilson maintained that the Webb-Kenyon law which has been referred to as applicable to the case properly has no bearing. The Webb-Kenyon law is a statute of few words which prohibits the transportation in interstate commerce from one state into another of intoxicating liquor which is intended by anyone interested therein to be received, possessed, sold or in any manner used in violation of any law of the state in which it is sent. Illinois has no law which would prohibit such shipment and it was argued that the city is without authority to enact such a measure.

Quotes Delaware Supreme Court Finding.

Mr. Wilson quoted at some length the finding of the Supreme Court of Delaware in the case of State vs. Grier. In this case Wm. Grier was indicted for bringing as agent of a certain liquor dealer in the state of Pennsylvania, intoxicating liquor into the local option territory within the state of Delaware. The court directed a verdict of guilty after examination of the facts submitted. The case was cited by Mr. Wilson to show that the state of Delaware has an anti-liquor law but that certain exceptions were provided for, thus making the measure reasonable. The law makes it unlawful for any common carrier to knowingly accept or receive for shipment transportation or delivery to any person or place within local option territory or to carry, bring into, transfer to any other person, carrier or agent, handle, deliver or distribute in local option territory, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquor, regardless of the name by which it may be called.

Another section makes it unlawful for any person or firm to engage in the manufacture or sale of liquor, or for the agent of such person or firm to convey liquor into local option territory, providing further for fines of from $50 to $500 for first offense and a jail punishment for the second offense.

The exceptions however and the section on which Mr. Wilson based argument that a law of this kind to stand a court test must be reasonable reads as follows: "Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to the shipment or delivery to physicians or druggists of spirituous, vinous or malt liquor in unbroken packages in quantity not to exceed 5 gallons at any one time, nor to delivery to church or the proper officers thereof, of wine, in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes."

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATING WORK IS NOW IN FULL PROGRESS

Jacksonville Students Preparing to Meet Quincy, Springfield and Beardstown—The Contest in Declaration.

Although the time for the inter-scholastic contests in debate is almost two months away, the squad at the Jacksonville high school is holding two sessions of good length each week and the students interested are giving the question of minimum wage a thorough discussion in all of its phases. The Triangle league debates will be held Friday, April 17, with the high schools of Jacksonville, Springfield and Quincy participating with one affirmative and one negative team each. Friday, April 17, a team from the local high school will discuss the affirmative of the question with Beardstown. An attempt has been made to induce the latter city to enter both a negative and affirmative team to debate Jacksonville the same night but it is not known as yet whether Beardstown will see fit to select and train a second trio.

The minimum wage question is receiving a thorough discussion. It is the purpose of Superintendent Collins that no student enter an inter-scholastic contest without the ability to view the question from any standpoint and to this end each member of the debating squad has been asked to prepare a paper discussing the affirmative or negative in full, to be read and criticized at the Monday and Thursday meetings of the squad.

The Proclamatory Contests.

This is the last day for entries in declaration for the spring contests. Seven students have so far submitted their names for entry in the preliminary and a total of ten, it is understood, will probably participate. Local students will be eligible in two contests, the regular meet of the W. I. H. S. L. to be held here Friday, May 1, and the Illinois Valley meet at Griggsville, April 24.

THE DRAMA LEAGUE AND THE REPERTORY COMPANY

It is a rare opportunity that the Drama League has secured for Jacksonville in bringing here the English Players who appear at the Grand this evening. The engagement was secured at considerable effort on the part of directors of the league and it is earnestly hoped that not only league members, but the public in general will profit by the rare opportunity of seeing on a Jacksonville stage actors of such undoubted merit. This is a company which has never before played outside of large cities, and it is a matter of civic pride that the welcome accorded them here should be both hearty and sympathetic.

The play to be given tonight, "Dolly Reforming Herself," is a 4 act light comedy, brilliant and sparkling—one of the most delightful of the comedies of Henry Arthur Jones. Although written three years ago, it was never presented on the American stage until given by this company in Chicago last December. Its sparkling and clever dialogue and numerous situations made it deservedly popular. "Lonesome Live" is a one act curtain raiser of Miss Francis Waring in this play. The Record Herald said: "Her acting in the part of the old woman touched perfection."

In its color, its raciness, its vehemence, its meeting quality at the close, it was perhaps the supreme achievement of this repertory season.

This should be an occasion of profit as well as pleasure for old and young. An intelligent and appreciative hearing of a good play will lift for an hour the burden of care and rejuvenate the tired brain; and for the young people in our educational institutions lasting ideals of dramatic art are formed by a few such rare presentations.

ENJOYED OYSTER SUPPER.

A merry crowd of young people went to the home of George Story, 8 miles southeast of Murrayville last night where an oyster supper and evening of fun was held. The merry-makers made the trip in a hob-sled.

WILL PREACH HERE.

Rev. William Johnson of White Hall will fill the pulpit of the First Baptist church both morning and evening next Sunday.

RETURN FROM GRAIN DEALERS' CONVENTION.

A. C. Rice and Thomas Cain Attended Sessions in Ottawa.

A. C. Rice and Thomas Cain returned yesterday from Ottawa, Ill., where they have been attending the session of the Illinois Farmers' Grain Dealers' Association. It was a successful meeting in every respect, between 500 and 600 delegates being in attendance. The delegates who were in Jacksonville last year, were still praising the hospitality and good time they had here. Ottawa was taxed to its capacity in accommodating big crowd and many had to find places to stay out of town. Winchester, Ashland, and Mason City, were among the towns close by who sent delegates. The members voted to meet next year in Bloomington and the same officers were elected, viz. H. W. Danforth of Washington, president; A. C. Rice, Jacksonville, first vice-president; J. C. Saylor, Cisma, second vice-president; Harry Wood, Delevan, treasurer; A. M. Seinhart, Bloomington, secretary. The state co-operative law was one of the most important things discussed at the sessions, also the unfavorable discrimination in grain rates.

WEDDING AT MURRAYVILLE.

Saint Bartholomew's Catholic church at Murrayville was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday morning. The principals in the happy affair being Miss Ellen C. Connolly and Mr. Coy J. Palmer, both of the Murrayville parish.

The marriage was solemnized at 9 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Father Macaulay, and was followed by the celebrated High Mass.

The bride party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, beautifully rendered by Miss Alma Flynn, who also played Mendelssohn's as a recessional. The mass was sung in a very pleasing manner by Mrs. P. L. Sheehan and Miss Stella Flynn. The latter singing the Ave Maria at the Offertory.

The bride was clad in a lovely white gown of brocade satin, with train and rose and pearl trimming. She wore a wreath and veil and carried a white ivory prayer book. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Clara C. Begnel, who wore a dress of white Swiss lace trimmed with pink rose buds and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. John Winters.

Immediately after the ceremony the relatives of the happy pair went to the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. James Begnel, the latter being a sister of the bride, where an elegant dinner was served.

The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion, pink and green being used in the parlor, pink and white in the reception room, red and white in the living room, and green and white in the dining room. Natural flowers and white wedding bells were used in all the rooms.

The cutting of the bride's and groom's cakes caused a great deal of merriment. Thos. Conlon getting the ring, Nicholas Conlon the cross, Leo Connolly the dime, Ida Begnel the key, Thos. Begnel the penny and Mrs. J. P. Ring the needle.

The couple received many nice presents which showed the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer left on the Wabash Wednesday evening for a brief wedding trip. On their return they will begin housekeeping on a farm east of Woodson.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE LOSES TO MILLIKIN

DECATUR FIVE ANNEXES GAME BY SCORE OF 31 TO 16.

Illinois Was Outplayed by Strong Team for the Second Time This Season—Resume of the Teams of the State Conference—Wesleyan-Bradley Game Tonight.

Illinois college was clearly outplayed by Millikin University last night on Illinois' own floor, the score when the final whistle blew being 31 to 16. The visitors are one of the fastest quintets in the state conference and they showed excellent form last night, outplaying the I. C. men two to one. The Millikin men were expecting a closer game because of playing away from home and also from the fact that Illinois did not have their regular line-up nor were they in good condition when the first game was played at the beginning of the season by the two schools.

Tournaments Close.

With the district tournaments only two weeks away from Friday and Saturday of this week it is no trouble to pick the eight teams from the fifteen which will go into the finals, to be held March 13 and 14 at Bloomington. But the mixups of the last two weeks make it impossible to say which of these eight leaders is going to finish first, or to even attempt to say for a surety which are going to be placed either one, two or three. Hedding, in eighth place now, by its victories of the past two weeks is sure to finish well up, while Augustana, now next to the top, has lost so much caste by its defeat at the hands of Bradley that it will have trouble to finish among the first four.

Upsets last week were numerous and this week may see a repetition of "dope gone wrong." Normal lost to Millikin, Augustana was found not in the same class with Bradley, while Hedding took a spurt and valoped both Carthage and Lincoln. The latter considered one of the stronger teams. Then McKendree, feared like Augustana because its strength was unknown, was an easy victim for Wesleyan, 62 to 22.

Lincoln had a disastrous week, losing two games, one of which was to the lowly William & Vashti team. It was the first victory for W. & V. in eight games. Carthage lost another and Lombard lost, 44 to 35 to St. Viators, an outside team. The score would indicate that Lombard has a pretty fair team, but it has played no conference tea this season.

Charleston Normal is another conference member that has played 10 games with conference teams this season. The truth is Coach Lantz would hardly pit his youngsters against any of the other weak conference teams. Charleston high school trimmed the Normal bunch last Saturday night on Normal's own floor, 24 to 14.

Critical Game Tonight.

W. & V. should win from Carthage Friday night. The Wesleyan-Bradley game tonight is a critical one for both teams and Millikin rooters are hoping Bradley will win so that Bradley's defeat of Millikin two weeks ago will not appear so inexcusable.

Bradley journeys to Abingdon Saturday night to meet Hedding in a critical game. The result is sure to be close.

TWO PRISONERS ELECTROCUTED IN INDIANA STATE PRISON

Electrocutions Are First Ever Held in That State Being Authorized by Act of Last Legislature.

Michigan City, Ind., Feb. 20.—Steve Chirka of Indiana Harbor, Ind., and Harry Resico of Vincennes, Ind., were electrocuted at the state prison here this morning. Chirka killed his wife and Resico murdered his wife and little son. The electrocutions were the first ever held in this state as this form of execution was substituted for hanging by the last legislature.

The secret methods pursued by the Indiana law for the execution of felons compelled each man to go to the death chamber alone and prison officials were the only witnesses. Chirka killed his wife in 1912. They had quarrelled frequently and she had caused his arrest for assault and battery.

Chirka's daughter and a neighbor girl saw him shoot his wife. Resico forbade his wife to go down town one evening in September 1913. She ignored his words and he followed her to the porch with a revolver and killed her as she knelt at his feet pleading for life. Resico then re-entered the house and killed his young son.

MRS. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON DIES AT HER HOME IN CALIFORNIA

Widow of Famous Writer Is Stricken With Apoplexy in Montecito—Son on Way From New York.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Feb. 19.—Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson, widow of the famous novelist and writer, died of apoplexy at her home in Montecito yesterday. She was stricken late yesterday and did not regain consciousness. Lloyd Osborne, her son, has started from New York for Santa Barbara and efforts are being made to locate her daughter, Mrs. Isobel Strong, who is believed to be in Honolulu.

Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson not only collaborated with her husband in some of his most charming works, but writing under her maiden name, Fanny Vandegrift, had attained some fame as a writer of short stories and magazine articles. At the time of his marriage Stevenson was in chronic ill health. Much has been written of the great love and patience shown by Mrs. Stevenson for her stricken husband. She went with him to the south seas, where at "Vallima" in Samoa, she nursed him and acted as amanuensis and general aide in his writing.

IT'S HUMAN NATURE to like to "do unto" those who appreciate.

We cater to young men especially because they're clothes enthusiasts. They know superior clothes when they see them, and we feel repaid for the time and study we spend searching the leading markets of the world for them. We expect a good deal of appreciation this Spring by young men for Society Brand Clothes.

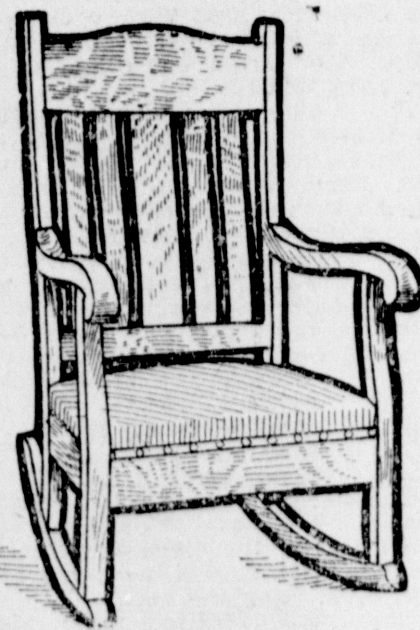

The first showing for Spring is now on display in our windows. Ask us to show them to you. Try them on. Note the beautiful fit, the distinctive cut, the smartness, the just enough "swagger" so different from ordinary clothes. You'll find yourself well repaid when you see them.
